HOLD MEETING TO CONGRATULATE THEMSELVES

It was a mutual admiration society meeting that the Democrats held Saturday night at Aala Park to congratulate themselves upon having taken such a successful swipe at the Republican cohorts on election day. They thanked the voters and they praised each other, the band played and the crowd laughed and cheered, and everybody was as happy as a school boy playing hooky. Bert Rivenburgh, the mayor's secretary was the first chairman but illness soon took him off and gave Kalakalela a chance.

K. M. Kaloe opened the meeting with prayer and J. M. Poepeo was the first speaker. He laid it on thick, and declared that none but Link McCandless will be acceptable to the rank and file of the party for the shoes Frear is so soon to leave vacant. He also declared himself in favor of a 22-day law, and asserted that he would work for one as soon as he took office.

Several of the speakers, including Treasurer-elect McCarthy, rapped the present board of supervisors, because "they are spending all the money, and will leave none to be turned over to the new administration." Almost to a man the speakers denounced the banana campaign of the board of health and said that they proposed to see to the enactment of laws guarding against such "outrages" in future. M. C. Pacheco, promised to do his best as a member of the board of supervisors, and regretted but one thing connected with the recent campaign, the failure of the voters to defeat Cupid and elect Link McCandless. Julius Asch, Jr., promised to father a bill favoring women's suffrage in the Territory, and Representative-elect Paele said that he intends introducing a bill making the office of the president of the board of health elective, and to fight any movement toward making the government of Hawaii one by commission.

McCandless assailed the Republicans, including the Governor, for taking away the powers of the mayor. He said the Democrats were ready "to block any vicious measures the Republicans introduced in the legislature."

Mrs. John H. Wilson, one of the foremost women speakers in the Islands during the past campaign, said that having spoken from the same platform the night before the election, many had remarked she was the kahuna for the whole party and that was why the Democrats won out. However, she disabused their minds of any idea she was a kahuna. It was all due to the poor work of the Republicans, and particularly because of the Republican cutting of bananas which disgusted the common people. At the ballots boxes they protested.

Representative-elect McCandless, from the fifth district, told the good people that had voted for him that he did not believe in coming before the people and telling them that they intended to do this or the other thing.

T. J. Ryan, who gave Auditor Bloch's close run for the office now held by Bloch, praised himself for having run a pretty good race and thanked those who had voted for him. The Democrats had promised to save the people, if elected, and it was now up to the people to watch the several candidates who had been elected on the Democratic ticket and if they did not live up to the several planks in the Democratic platform, a new set should be sent back two years hence.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' FUND FOR HOME GROWING FAST

The campaign which is now being waged by the King's Daughters to secure the necessary funds to erect their new home in Kaimuki is rapidly nearing the close, and it is expected that during the next ten days which now remain before Thanksgiving Day that the necessary building fund of $75,000 will have been secured.

The King's Daughters let the contract for the new home with less than $20,000 in the treasury, and in order to raise the necessary amount to cover the building expenses, a campaign was started in which all the members of the societies took an active part. It was decided to raise the money by private subscription, each member being supplied with a list of the names of ten prospective givers on whom they will call. As these parties were called upon, new names were added to the lists, and while some who were called upon were unable to respond, the generosity of others made up the difference. The campaign was continued this morning with redoubled interest, and on the closing day there is little doubt but what the necessary amount will have been obtained. As one way of giving thanks, no doubt many people will contribute liberally to the fund on Thanksgiving Day.

STANDARD REMEDY FOR WOMAN'S ILLS

now recognized the world over is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and fair-minded physicians recognize its worth and do not hesitate to prescribe it.

For nearly forty years this famous root and herb medicine has been preeminently successful in controlling the diseases of women. Merit alone could have stood this test of time—advertisement.

Ticket speculators reaped a rich harvest in the sale of tickets to the big Bull Moose meetings held in New York before election.

A number of American professors have opened up a series of lectures in Berlin, Germany. The lectures are being well attended.
